Book Launch Memo & Key Details

Context:

18 months ago we did the launch that broke the internet. We still ride this goodwill today. But, it's time to do another one and re-anchor ourselves as top in the business space.

Confirmed Date: 9:00AM August 16th, 2025.

Objective(s):

Each book is a meta concept. Offers was an offer so good you'd feel stupid saying no. Leads was a crazy advertising campaign and an offer so good you'd feel stupid saying no. And this launch uses the skills from offers, leads, and adds in monetization.

It would be iconic to continue the $100M series with a $100M Money Models launch, and break two Guinness World Records;

1. Set a new Guinness World Record for the most books sold in 24 hours by a single author – targeting over 1.5 million units on Day 1 of release.
2. Most viewers of a book launch live stream on YouTube, with a current record of 151,161 concurrent viewers. hosted live in conjunction with the book launch.

Post launch, we kick off aggressive PR about the record breaking launch to reinforce and memorialize the brand moment.

Ad Overview

- We will be using 2 companies to run paid ads.
  - Vendor - who ran all the traffic for the last book launch.
    - They will get 80% of advertising budget
  - Vendor - Current media buying team.
    - They will get 20% of the advertising budget
  - If one is out performing the other we will reallocate the ad budget accordingly
  - Both teams are synced and meet weekly to align on strategy.
- We have increased daily spend limits in multiple ad accounts and will continue to request this leading up to the launch.
- We have 3 business managers set up as back up redundancies.

How the launch will work:

The launch will go through preparation, email kick off to our list (6 weeks out), Affiliate Kickoff to our $100M leads Affiliate list (6 weeks out), announcement (4 weeks out), the countdown, the live launch, a replay/cart close mini event the next morning, announcement of the total sales, making it available on amazon etc, and kick off of PR campaign.

Venue: Company Headquarters

We will be building an inhouse Virtual event space in Alex's studio. We have ordered an LED wall that will be set up and configured for the live. We have contracted Vendor studio set up team to help with LED wall build as well as the onsite AV production of the event.

The virtual live stream will be hosted on three different links on two different platforms

1. YT Live Non VIP. Comment will be enabled to enhance the viewer experience. We will have light moderators in the chat.
2. VIP YT Live. Comments will be enabled and this will be monitored by Alex to pull VIP questions for the mystery guest speakers. This will also be the chat shown on the screen.
3. Zoom. So that we can mimic a crowded group behind Alex, we'll invite L2 and L3 people to the zoom link. A manageable number of people we know are "friendlys" and can account for some fall off to showcase the number of faces we want live on the screen.

LED Wall / Studio Setup ≈ Timeline

1. Vendor will receive the wall in PHX on {Date}
2. Vendor will load into their warehouse and inspect the product and then load our wall, the ground support and processors into a truck and drive up on {Date}

Email & SMS: We will update everyone during the event, post event, leading up to the live again, and cart close. See email / sms copy here

Phase V: Sales Facilitation

To accommodate this much volume in such a short window, we will rely on robust tech and surge support. We will make sure that we are good to go by checking in with the CEOs of each platform - and - have back up internet ready + a generator.

On the people side, we will add in a phone number on the check out page if someone has a problem checking out.

Bundles: After the launch and cart close Hormozi 3-pack goes live on the site. This is a 3 pack of all 3 books.

Phase VII: Delivery

The books will be sent by 3PL, our third party logistics company. We utilize 3 of their warehouses for centralized shipping. These are the potential delivery scenarios:

If someone pre-ordered the book: this shipment will go out first. If they order something else, it will come separately.

If someone orders just one book at the event: it works like normal.

If someone orders 15 books: they will get one book and a discount code for 15 redemptions emailed to them plus a physical copy of ACQ Closer and ACQ Advertising Handbook mailed to them.

If someone orders 200 books: If someone orders 200 books, they will get one physical book + a discount code for 199 redemptions + binder + 12 playbooks inside. Their checkout page will ask them if they are business owners to prequalify leads.

Phase VIII: Brand Maximization Through PR

We advertise the launch and event. We have PR firms ready to go prior. We would love to see a bunch of major outlets publishing how some entrepreneurs or social media gurus broke Prince Harry's single day record. And that we did it by giving everything away.

We make sure we focus on the total books sold, not the amount of money made. And how Influencers are the new age celebrities.
