Email copy:	Hi [First Name], Turns out even the $100M team makes mistakes. We accidentally set up the original Zoom link as a webinar instead of a meeting, which would have meant no one's face would appear on screen during the event. Since this is a face-on experience and your presence matters, we've corrected it. You are now registered for the correct Zoom meeting format. There's nothing you need to do other than: 1. Delete the original Zoom calendar event 2. Look for a new email from Zoom confirming your registration 3. Accept the new event invite when it arrives to add it to your calendar If you'd prefer to re-register directly, you can also use this link: ➡️ REGISTER HERE You're still confirmed for the $100M Money Models Live Launch on Saturday, August 16 at 9:00 AM PT. If you have any questions simply reply directly to this email and we will be happy to assist. Thank you for your understanding, and we look forward to seeing you on screen.
